INTRODUCTION

The ACT Government, through the Chief Minister, Treasury and Economic Development Directorate (the Directorate), contracts registered training organisations (RTOs) to deliver government subsidised training to eligible students. This contract, the Training Initiative Funding Agreement (Agreement), allows RTOs to deliver programs to address the major objectives of the ACT vocational education and training (VET) system.

The Agreement sets out the terms and conditions under which the Directorate, through Skills Canberra, may make funds available towards the cost of RTOs delivering Subsidised Training to eligible students. The ACT Standards for Delivery of Subsidised Training (ACT Standards) outline the mandatory standards for RTOs in the management and delivery of Subsidised Training and are a schedule to the Agreement. The ACT Standards Compliance Guides provide direction to RTOs on how to interpret and comply with the ACT Standards and include additional mandatory requirements for the delivery of each Training Initiative.

By entering into an Agreement, RTOs commit to meet the contractual obligations for compliance including:

- being responsible for establishing and implementing controls to assist in maintaining compliance
- being responsible for the maintenance and preparation of any audit evidence requested by the Directorate
- providing the Directorate and its auditors with access to all information requested for the purpose of conducting an audit and/or confirming compliance.

Audits are a key methodology to manage RTO compliance with the Agreement, the ACT Standards and ACT Standards Compliance Guides. A Compliance Audit is not a substitute for the RTO having established practices to manage its contractual obligations and does not relieve an RTO of responsibilities outlined in the contract.

Document purpose

This document details the strategy that guides the Compliance Audit program. It also provides guidance to RTOs on how to prepare for a Compliance Audit and what to expect from the audit process.

COMPLIANCE AUDIT CONTEXT

Why Compliance Audits are conducted

RTOs contracted by the Directorate are expected to meet high levels of performance to ensure the quality, strength and integrity of the ACT VET system.

The objectives of Compliance Audits are to ensure:

- compliance with requirements that-
 - a) allocated funding is expended in accordance with contractual conditions
 - b) training and assessment is delivered in accordance with the requirements of the Training Initiative, as specified in the ACT Standards and ACT Standards Compliance Guides
 - c) systems and processes support the provision of training and assessment
- quality of service provision that-
 - a) represents value for money
 - b) identifies RTOs and sectors of industry where good practice is occurring
- risk mitigation that ensures-
 - a) any identified risks to students or to the ACT Government are managed
 - b) complaints are investigated.

Where performance measures have not been met a range of actions are applied as described in this document (refer to the Compliance Audit process).

Principles and expectations

The Directorate will:

- take a risk-based approach to the monitoring of RTO compliance
- be systematic and consistent in the assessment of RTOs and in the consequent determination of the level of non-compliance
- be transparent about RTO obligations
- provide timely advice and information
- respond to questions to help RTOs comply with specific requirements
- regularly review practices and seek new and improved ways to undertake Compliance Audit programs.

RTOs will:

- take a professional approach to compliance
- be familiar with, and act in accordance with, obligations under the Agreement,
- meet the standards set out in the ACT Standards for Delivery of Subsidised Training in accordance with the requirements of the ACT Standards Compliance Guides
- be cooperative and responsive to requests including requests for information and questions about activities and compliance
- maintain and prepare audit evidence as required
- undertake timely rectification actions as notified.

COMPLIANCE AUDIT TYPE

Types of Compliance Audits conducted

A Compliance Audit may be conducted using one or more of the following methods:

- RTO Internal Review Tool
- Desktop audit
- On-site audit
- Investigative audit.

For an explanation of these terms refer to the Terms and Definitions (Appendix A).

Management of RTO compliance is supported by two (2) audit streams - on-cycle and off-cycle.

ON-CYCLE COMPLIANCE AUDITS

Audits are undertaken in accordance with the Agreement to monitor RTOs delivering ACT government Subsidised Training and assess compliance with the ACT Standards and the ACT Standards Compliance Guides. In an on-cycle Compliance Audit (desktop or on-site) a range of Standards are audited, and the audit outcomes are assessed using the Compliance Matrix (refer to Appendix B).

As an annual requirement, the RTO Internal Review Tool is also considered an on-cycle Compliance Audit. Information from the RTO Internal Review Tool is not assessed against the Compliance Matrix but is used to inform other audit activities.

OFF-CYCLE COMPLIANCE AUDITS

Off-cycle Compliance Audits (desktop, on-site or investigative) are conducted in response to specific concerns including:

- the outcome of an on-site or desktop Compliance Audit, which requires further follow up to ensure issues identified have been addressed. The previous audit report is reviewed to ensure that the RTO has addressed any specific follow up actions or concerns within reasonable timelines; however the audit may not be restricted to these areas
- submission of an RTO Internal Review Tool Report which is considered inadequate or does not suggest strong business practices underpin RTO activity
- information or a complaint received which suggests that an RTO may be non-compliant with the Agreement. An investigative Compliance Audit may result in a Show Cause Notice requiring the RTO to provide a written response to matters raised and/or meet with the Directorate to discuss the issues identified.

If further investigation is required, an additional desktop and/or on-site Compliance Audit may be scheduled. The audit/s will focus on evidence supporting specific systems and processes and/or a sample of student files. These may also include reviewing evidence to ensure that the matters raised previously have been addressed satisfactorily. Where the off-cycle Compliance Audit involves a review of the RTO's compliance against six or more ACT Standards, the audit outcomes will be assessed using the Compliance Matrix (refer to Appendix B).

Types of audit evidence

Compliance Audits may include a review of systems and processes and student files.

SYSTEMS AND PROCESSES

Evidence of RTO systems and processes is reviewed to monitor the RTO's capacity to comply with obligations under the Agreement and to identify:

- common themes of non-compliance that may be occurring across the RTO
- actions against continuous improvement opportunities that have been identified.

STUDENT FILES

Where the RTO has funded student activity in the period being audited, a detailed examination of a statistically valid sample of student files and records (refer to Student selection) may be reviewed.

Evidence for systems and processes and student files is assessed using the Compliance Matrix (refer to Compliance Audit process and Appendix B1 and Appendix B2).

RTO SELECTION

How RTOs are selected for an on-cycle Compliance Audit

A risk based approach is taken to compliance. RTOs are assessed each year, against a set of indicators which the Directorate has determined indicate an RTO may not be meeting its obligations under the Agreement. The indicators are classified into two categories, potential or known concerns. The potential concern indicators refer to information about the RTO that may contribute to the overall risk of the RTO. The known concern indicators refer to issues or concerns that have already been identified.

The risk indicator categories include, but are not limited to, the following:

Table 1: Risk Indicator Changes

Indicator Type	Risk Indicator Description Indicators are subject to change
Potential Concern	Amount of funding received
	Increase in funding in previous year
	Student activity
	Number of initiative(s) the RTO delivers training in Number of qualifications on scope in ACT
	Number of years since last audit
	Turnover in key personnel
	New RTO
	Subcontractor arrangements
	Completion rates
	Business breadth
	Course duration
	Agreement assessment score
	Past audit results recommend follow up Compliance Audit*

Indicator Type	Risk Indicator Description Indicators are subject to change
Known Concern	RTO behaviour is not cooperative / responsive / professional
	Complaints received
	Incorrect payment claims
	RTO Internal Review Tool deadline not met
	National Centre for Vocational Education Research (NCVER) Australian Vocational Education and Training Management Information Statistical Standard (AVETMISS) reporting deadline not met
	AVETMISS reporting data errors/ inaccuracies
	Notification from the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) of non-compliance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015

* Past audit results alone may determine an RTOs risk indicator band (refer to Diagram 2)

Note: If information related to any of the indicators is not known at the time of the indicator assessment, that indicator does not contribute to the overall classification.

When combined these indicators are used to classify each RTO into a low, medium, high or extreme risk indicator band for the monitoring period. A high score in either category increases the probability of the RTO being selected for a Compliance Audit, however more weight is given to the known concern indicators.

		Known Concerns
		Low	Medium	High	Extreme
Potential Concerns	Low	Low	Medium	Medium	High
	Medium	Low	Medium	High	Extreme
	High	Medium	High	Extreme	Extreme

Table 2: Risk Indicator Assessment Table

RTOs are selected from each risk indicator band for the on-cycle Compliance Audit program to ensure a broad selection of providers are audited. This also ensures that any RTO in receipt of government funding has the potential to be audited in any year.

STUDENT SELECTION

How student files are selected for a Compliance Audit

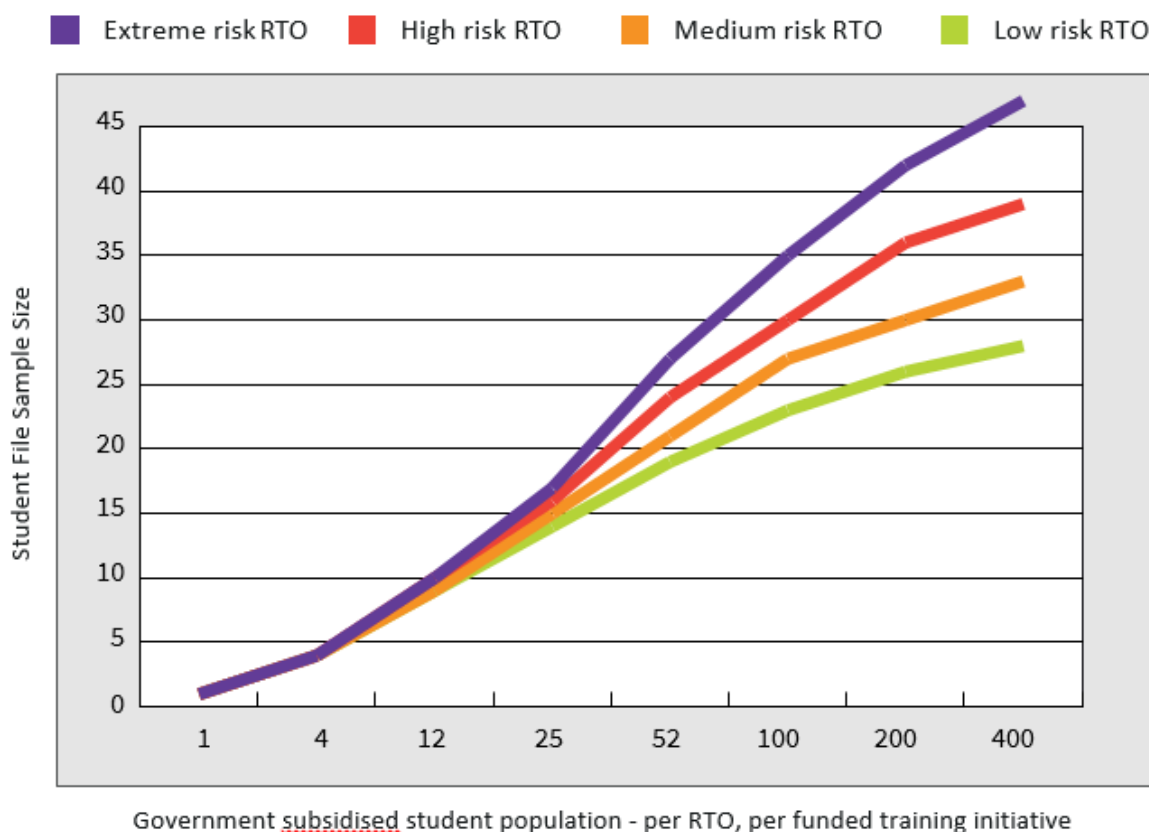

To ensure the selection of student files is representative of the RTO's overall activity, a statistically significant sample is chosen relative to the RTO's student population. The student population is determined by the reported training activity for the funded Training Initiative and the time period being audited.

The sampling methodology also employs a gradient slope to determine the number of student files to be audited according to the risk indicator band of the RTO. The advantage of this approach is to ensure there is greater confidence that the Compliance Audit outcome reflects an accurate picture of compliance for an RTO classified in the higher indicator bands.

The sample student files are representative of the RTO student population. For example, files are selected from a range of types such as new commencements, completions, cancellations, suspended and withdrawn students. Depending on the focus of the audit the sample student files chosen may include some or all of the range of student types noted above.

Where an RTO has a small number of government subsidised students for the audit period, variation to the sampling methodology may be applied.

Diagram 1: Example Audit Sample Chosen Relevant to the Student Population (Per RTO)

COMPLIANCE AUDIT PROCESS

Audit notification

RTOs are notified of an on-cycle Compliance Audit at least 10 business days prior to the event via an audit notification advice. When the Compliance Audit involves a review of student files the RTO is given the list of nominated students at least one business day prior to the Compliance Audit. RTOs are also advised the day prior to the audit of the areas of the ACT Standards and, where applicable, the ACT Standards Compliance Guide to be audited.

To ensure an equitable audit process across all RTOs a minimum of 50% of the ACT Standards are selected for each desktop or on-site Compliance Audit. At audit, evidence is sought which demonstrates compliance against each selected standard. For examples of evidence refer to the ACT Standards Compliance Guides.

How audit evidence is assessed and the possible outcomes

The intent of all Compliance Audits, both on-cycle and off-cycle, is to confirm RTO compliance with the Agreement, the ACT Standards and ACT Standards Compliance Guides. All evidence considered as part of the audit process is assessed against these documents.

USE OF THE COMPLIANCE MATRIX

The Compliance Matrix (refer to Appendix B) is used to assess the audit evidence for desktop and on-site Compliance Audits and to determine the audit outcomes. The matrix criteria are used to assess compliance with the key requirements of the ACT Standards and ACT Standards Compliance Guides and to apply consistent and equitable actions for specified instances of non-compliance.

In accordance with the types of audit evidence, the matrix is divided into two sections, systems and processes and student files. The matrix includes examples of what constitutes instances of 'compliant' through to 'non-compliant' findings at both system and student file level. The descriptors within the matrix are used to support the decision to rate an RTO's performance as compliant or non-compliant, including the level of non-compliance i.e. minor, moderate, major and critical.

The overall level of risk determined by the audit outcome and the instances of non-compliance defines the size and type of action taken by the Directorate.

Actions are taken in response to systems and process or student file non-compliances identified. Such actions may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

- deducting an amount from the Funding
- deferring or withholding payments
- preventing or limiting access to further funding Training Initiatives
- removing, restricting or suspending the RTO's Agreement
- applying conditions to the RTO's Agreement.

Example:

Lack of an AVETMISS compliant student management system would not incur a Funding deduction but may result in suspension of the RTO's Agreement.

Funding deductions are applied because of non-compliant findings in student files. The amount of funding at risk is based on 20% of the total Funding (up to a maximum of $400,000) paid to the RTO for the audited Training Initiative for the audited period.

The rationale for the percentage of funding (20%) that an RTO has at risk is based on the principle that the Funding deduction is commensurate with the level of non-compliance.

Actions taken that do not result in a Funding deduction are at the Directorate's discretion and are determined on a case by case basis.

CONSEQUENCES FOR CRITICAL NON-COMPLIANCE

Instances of critical non-compliance identified in sampled student files automatically result in recovery of 100% of funding for the particular student for which the critical non-compliance was identified.

Any remaining non-compliances (including minor, moderate or major) identified for the sampled student file are taken into consideration to calculate the overall non-compliance percentage and Funding deduction amount. The amount of funding at risk is reduced by the recovered amount for the critical non-compliance.

Example:

An RTO receives $60,000 for the audited period and instances of critical non-compliance were found in two (2) student files. The total funding paid to the RTO for the two (2) students for the audited period is $6,000 ($3,000 per student). Therefore the maximum funding at risk is 20% of ($60,000-$6,000), i.e. $10,800.

OVERALL COMPLIANCE AUDIT RESULT

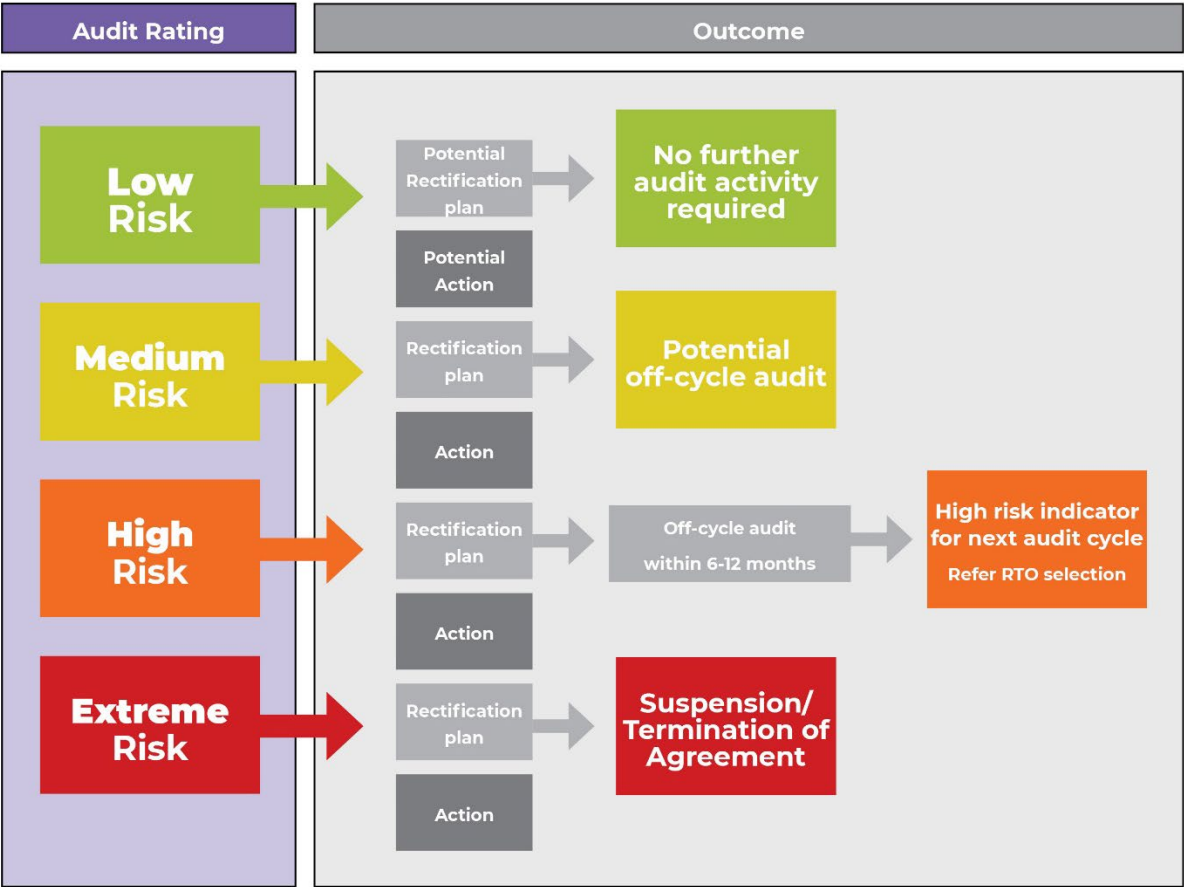

In instances where the RTO is unable to rectify or address the identified areas of non-compliance satisfactorily the outcome of a Compliance Audit may include:

- recovery of Funding for one or more specific students (when critical non-compliance is identified)
- follow-up audit (depending on the audit rating this may be within a 6-12 month period)
- rectification plan
- action by the Directorate
- a change to the RTO's risk indicator band.

The final outcome for a desktop or on-site Compliance Audit is presented as an overall audit rating, calculated using a weighted algorithm.

The diagram on the following page provides a summary of the audit outcome process.

Diagram 2: Outcome of a Compliance Audit where the Compliance Matrix is applied

AUDIT REPORT

How Compliance Audits are reported

There are two possible outcomes of a Compliance Audit:

- all the requirements of the ACT Standards (or other areas being audited) are met or,
- areas of non-compliance are identified.

Depending on the type of Compliance Audit conducted (refer to Types of Compliance Audits conducted) the audit report provided to the RTO contains the following:

Table 3: Audit Reporting

Type of Audit	Method of assessment	Audit report content
RTO Internal Review Tool	Assessment of Tool content and supporting documents	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overview of findings and, where applicable, action required • Impact of audit findings on further audit activity
Desktop audit	Compliance Matrix	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Detailed report of audit findings including, where applicable, actions required • Overall RTO compliance rating for ACT Standards audited • RTO Compliance Audit rating from analysis of System level audit evidence (including where applicable, determination of action) and/or • RTO Compliance Audit rating from analysis of Student File audit evidence (including where applicable, non-compliance percentage and Funding deduction amount) • Impact of audit findings on further audit activity
On-site audit	Compliance Matrix	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Detailed report of audit findings including actions required • Overall RTO compliance rating for ACT Standards audited • RTO Compliance Audit rating from analysis of System level audit evidence (including where applicable, determination of action) and/or • RTO Compliance Audit rating from analysis of Student File audit evidence (including where applicable, non-compliance percentage and deduction amount) • Impact of audit findings on further audit activity

Investigative audit	Specific criteria assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Detailed report of audit findings including actions required Impact of audit findings on further audit activity

For desktop and on-site Compliance Audits, the RTO is provided with an audit report within 30 calendar days of the date the audit is conducted. The audit report is a formal record of the audit and includes the scope and details of the Compliance Audit, staff involved, opportunities for improvement and any initial non-compliance identified.

For investigative audits based on specific information or a complaint/s, the reporting mechanisms differ depending on the nature of the investigation. The RTO will receive a letter detailing the outcome of the investigation and any further actions required, with the due date for actions to be completed.

Where non-compliance in a Compliance Audit is identified, the RTO is provided with opportunity to rectify where possible before the final audit outcome is determined, and any Directorate action is applied. This may include the provision of further evidence to enable a better understanding of the RTO's position regarding the reported non-compliance. A response date for the rectification evidence to be supplied is notified to the RTO with the audit report.

It is the responsibility of the RTO to meet the notified deadline. In cases where the response has not been received by the due date, and agreement has not been reached for an extension to the submission deadline, the final audit outcome is based on the initial audit findings notified.
